

MANY WOMEN ARE READY TO SHARE LOT WITH JONES

Would-Be Bridegroom Must Make His Choice Quickly or Will Lose Fortune

The young woman behind the desk at Bath's plumbing establishment hung up the telephone with a bang for the nth time this morning, and glanced inquiringly at a reporter, who had asked to see Thomas G. Jones.

"I'm awfully sorry," she said, "but you will have to come around after working hours. You see, Mr. Jones' time belongs to the company while he is on the job and we cannot permit anyone to talk to him."

Unabashed by this fusillade, the scribbler continued:

"I only wanted to inquire how many proposals Mr. Jones had this morning."

"Oh, my goodness," sighed the young woman. "I guess about 5000 women have called up and asked for him today. It certainly is a funny thing that so many Honolulu women have decided to get married so suddenly. But then, I suppose they have the right to propose. This is leap year, you know."

The young woman said she did not know whether Mr. Jones had picked out his future bride-to-be. Could the reporter ask him? Oh no, Mr. Jones must not be disturbed at his work. So the interview ended.

Here is the "dope." Mr. Jones will have $35,000 coming to him on November 16 next, providing he is married by next Tuesday. In case he is not married the money will be devoted to charity.

Jones is advertising for a wife in the local press.

S. R. Bath said this morning that the story is absolutely "on the square."

"I understand that the uncle who made this peculiar will was an eccentric man. At any rate, you can bank on it that Jones has to get married or lose the money, and he is in a real fix," said Mr. Bath today. "Some people seem to think it is an advertising scheme, but it isn't."

Jones is from the south, but that is any hint to prospective applicants for the position of a bride.

POLICE NOTES

Eddie Miller, aged 18 years, has been arrested by the police on a charge of breaking into a public school and being a common nuisance. Miller was committed from Kaula to the reform school several months ago and sent here in charge of a "good" official. He escaped here and has been at large since then. Although over the age limit, Miller has been committed to Judge Whitney's court, as it was there he was tried before.

Brown or white cigarette papers? That question started the trouble between Sam Lele and Kamane. The latter went to jail Wednesday for six months.

Lele testified in police court Wednesday that Kamane struck him over the head with a coffee pot after they had an argument which started over whether white or brown cigarette papers were proper to smoke. Kamane said Lele called him names before he struck.

Kamane has a very hot temper, according to the police, and has been in similar trouble before.

Joe Teixeira left police court yesterday without penalty after he had convinced Judge Monstrat that he did not strike Frank Goveia until the latter had threatened him with a hammer.

Three gamblers arrested by the detective department Tuesday afternoon admitted guilt and paid $5 each. They were Hiram Kerr, W. A. Rathburn and Lum Yock. Three others were discharged when they explained they were coming from work and merely stopped to look on. They promised to take the other side of the street hereafter.

The case of O. A. Weighley was called and continued for a month. The defendant is charged with running over and injuring some Russians.

The case of Ah Hing, accused of assault, was postponed a week.

Two drunks paid fines of $5 and $3.

There are eleven known varieties of the so-called "malva" in Cuba, but the locally designed as "malva blanca" (Urena lobata), has been determined to be a very promising source of fiber, from which may eventually be woven the supply of sugar sacks for the Cuban market, while the finer varieties, can undoubtedly be used in the manufacture of new fabrics for wearing apparel.

CHANG CHAU HAS EXPECTATIONS IF SUN COMES BACK

If Dr. Sun Yat Sen ever again becomes head of the government of China, Chang Chau, his foster-brother and proprietor of large interests at Leliehan, probably will be given a high position in the republic.

This is according to Chang Chau himself, who says that already he has received a number of calls from Dr. Sun, which intimate that he would be placed in some responsible position.

"During one of the earlier revolutions in China," says Chang Chau, "Dr. Sun left his family in Maui and went to China to join the rebels. I took care of his interests here, looking after his family and educating his children."

"As a result we became close friends and when Dr. Sun was here about 15 years ago we, in the Chinese way, proclaimed that we were of the same parentage."

Chang Chau adds that if he is capable he doubtless would accept any offer from Dr. Sun.

CITY ATTORNEY PROPER ONE TO GO TO CAPITAL

Mayor Lane and Supervisors
Think Franchise Legislation
May Need Watching

A. M. Cristy or W. T. Carden, deputy city attorneys, would be the only proper representative for the city to send to Washington, in the opinion of Mayor Lane. "Not that James L. Coke, whose name has been proposed, would not be able to do much to help the Rapid Transit franchise amendments through Congress," he said this morning, "but the city's own legal representative is the only proper person to send to Washington."

He declared that if the amendments are finally sent to Washington he would take steps towards having an appropriation made to pay the expenses of either Cristy or Carden for a Washington trip. "The city's interests must be protected in Washington, as they have been here," he asserted. "The city's attorneys put up a good fight to get the city's demands incorporated in the proposed amendments and proved that they are amply capable of protecting its interests. There is no telling what sort of an innocent appearing joker might be put into the bill in Congress and there is an undoubted need of active work in Congress by a representative of the city."

The mayor expressed what appears to be the opinion of the Board of Supervisors. It is pointed out by some of the members that the city will collect about $20,000 in taxes from the Transit company this year if the franchise amendments pass Congress and that it can very well afford to spend the $1500 or $2000 necessary for the expenses of a Washington trip to aid in pushing the measure through the national legislative body. It is freely predicted that the Transit company will send one of its attorneys, probably A. L. Castle, to Washington if the amendments are introduced in Congress and the need of the city for adequate representation there is admitted by most of the city officials.
